areas of research; complete statistical and nonquantitative analyses; prepare reports; analyze research conducted by other agencies; collaborate with and provide consultative services to college and university deans, program directors, school administrators, professional associations, and community representatives regarding program evaluation.

All positions are located in Sacramento only.

EXAMINATION INFORMATION: A candidate may apply and be tested only once in a 12-month period.

This examination utilizes an evaluation of each candidate's experience and education and personal development, and is designed to elicit the candidate's abilities as demonstrated by quality and breadth of experience, measuring competitively each candidate's knowledge, abilities, and potential to effectively perform the duties of the classification (weighted 100%). For this reason, it is especially important that each candidate take special care in accurately and completely filling out their Supplemental Application. List all experience relevant to the "REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMITTANCE TO THE EXAMINATION" shown on this announcement, even if that experience goes beyond the seven-year limit allowed on the Supplemental Application. Supplementary information will be accepted, but read the "REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMITTANCE TO THE EXAMINATION" carefully to see what kind of information will be useful to the staff doing the evaluation. In order to obtain a position on the eligible list, a minimum rating of 70.00% must be attained. Hiring interviews may also evaluate the following:

SCOPE:

A. Knowledge of:

1. Current laws and trends in teacher education in California.
2. Organization and structure of California teacher education.

 10. Consult with colleges and universities regarding teacher education programs and evaluation.
 11. Conduct research in program evaluation.
 12. Prepare policy recommendations.

ELIGIBLE LIST: An eligible list will be established for the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing. Names of successful candidates are merged into the eligible list in order of final scores, regardless of test date. Eligibility expires 24 months after it is established unless the needs of the service and conditions of the list warrant a change in this period. Competitors with list eligibility may retest after their eligibility expires.

CAREER CREDITS: This is an open examination, applications will not be accepted on a promotional basis. Career credits do not apply.

VETERANS PREFERENCE: Veterans preference credit will not be granted in this examination since it does not qualify as an entrance examination under the law.

GENERAL INFORMATION

For an examination without a written feature, it is the candidate's responsibility to contact the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing, Human Resources Section at (916) 322-6199, six weeks after filing if he/she has not received a progress notice.

Supplemental Applications are available at the Department noted on the front.

If you meet the requirements stated on the front, you may take this examination, which is competitive. Possession of the entrance requirement does not assure a place on the eligible list. Your performance in the examination described on the other side of this bulletin will be compared with the performance of the others who take this examination, and all candidates who pass will be ranked according to their scores.

The California Commission on Teacher Credentialing reserves the right to revise the examination plan to better meet the needs of the service if the circumstances under which this examination was planned change. Such revision will be in accordance with civil service laws and rules and all competitors will be notified.

Examinations Locations: When a written test is part of the examination, it will be given in such places in California as the number of candidates and conditions warrant. Ordinarily, oral interviews are scheduled in Sacramento, San Francisco, and Los Angeles. However, locations of interviews may be limited or extended as conditions warrant.

Eligible Lists: Eligible lists established by competitive examination, regardless of date, must be used in the following order: 1) subdivisional promotional, 2) departmental promotional, 3) multidepartmental promotional, 4) servicewide promotional, 5) departmental open, 6) open. When there are two lists of the same kind, the older must be used first. Eligible lists will expire in from one to four years unless otherwise stated on this bulletin.

General Qualifications: Candidates must possess essential personal qualifications including integrity, initiative, dependability, good judgment, and ability to work cooperatively with others; and a state of health consistent with the ability to perform the assigned duties of the class. A medical examination may be required. In open examinations, investigation may be made of employment records and personal history, and fingerprinting may be required.

Interview Scope: If an interview is conducted, in addition to the scope described above, the panel will consider education, experience, personal development, personal traits, and fitness. In appraising experience, more weight will be given to the breadth and recency of pertinent experience and evidence of the candidate's ability to accept and fulfill increasing responsibilities than to the length of his/her experience. Evaluation of a candidate's personal development will include consideration of his/her recognition of his/her own training needs; his/her plans for self-development; and the progress he/she has made in his/her efforts toward self-development.

Veterans Preference: California law limits the granting of veterans preference credits to entrance examinations. When credit is granted for open entrance examinations it is as follows: 10 points for veterans, widows and widowers of veterans, and spouses of 100% disabled veterans; and 15 points for disabled veterans. Directions for applying for veterans preference points are on the Veteran Preference Application, form 1093 which is available from the State Personnel Board and the Department of Veterans Affairs, P.O. Box 942895, Sacramento, CA 94295-0001.

High School Equivalence: Equivalence to completion of the 12th grade may be demonstrated in any one of the following ways: 1) passing the General Educational Development (GED) Test; 2) completion of 12 semester units of college-level work; 3) certification from the State Department of Education, a local school board, or high school authorities that the candidate is considered to have education equivalent to graduation from high school; or 4) for clerical and accounting classes, substitution of business college work in place of high school on a year-for-year basis.

Policy of Nondiscrimination on the Basis of Disability and Equal Employment Opportunity Statement

The California Commission on Teacher Credentialing does not discriminate on the basis of disability in employment or in the admission and access to its programs or activities. Mary Butera, Manager, Human Resources Section, 1900 Capitol Avenue, Sacramento, CA 95814-4213, has been designated to coordinate and carry out this agency's compliance with the nondiscrimination requirements of Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Information concerning the provisions of the ADA, and the rights provided thereunder, are available from the ADA Coordinator.
